Our Mission: The Bleeding Disorders Foundation of North Carolina is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the quality of life of persons affected by bleeding disorders through advocacy, education, promotion of research, and delivery of supportive programs and services.

Our Vision is for all persons affected by bleeding disorders to achieve their full potential without barriers or limitations.

What Do We Do?

The Bleeding Disorders Foundation of North Carolina (BDFNC) provides a variety of programs and services throughout the state for people affected by bleeding disorders. Educational and social events are held throughout the year including Community Retreat, Educational Conferences, events in Spanish, Support Groups, Teen Empowerment Events, and more! In addition, BDFNC offers a range of services designed to support the needs of community members throughout the state.
